Fluoride Program Offered This Summer

Topical applications of fluoride will again be offered to children in the area this summer according to Dr. Girard Veenschoten, Director of District Health Department No. 1.

The fluoride program which is supervised by the Michigan Department of Public Health, will be made available to preschoolers — three years and over, second, fifth and eighth graders and to special cases referred by dentists.

The procedure consists of four visits to the fluoride clinic at approximately two day intervals. The child's teeth are cleaned on the first visit and a fluoride solution is applied directly to the surface of the teeth. The fluoride application only is then repeated during the three succeeding visits. This technique has been shown to reduce tooth decay by about forty percent compared with the sixty to sixty-five percent reduction obtained with fluoridated water.

In addition to providing protection against cavities, the program offers a valuable dental education for children with no discomfort. Dental health education by the clinic personnel, including instruction in the proper method of brushing teeth, also is an important part of the program.

A fee of $3.00 is charged to cover the cost of operating the clinic. Cards and letters will be sent home with the students in the second, fifth, and eighth grades. Anyone wishing to enroll pre-schoolers may obtain a card from the school or contact the Health Department.

Girl Scout Fair Feb. 24

Worlds to Explore is the theme of the Big Waters Girl Scout Council Fair scheduled Saturday, February 24, at Thunder Bay Junior High School in Alpena. Weeks of exploration by 654 girls in 33 troops throughout north-eastern Michigan are assurance that at least 33 countries of this world will be represented at the Fair. Hours are from 1 to 7 p.m.

Each troop has selected a country, studied its traditions and customs, its culture and folklore — all the aspects of its material and spiritual development. With this background, each will set up a booth and in a small area present a miniature replica of the selected country. (See Girl Scout Fair — Page 5)

Over 1,500 Books Sold at Book Fair

Fraser Dean, reading specialist for the Crawford County School District, reports that the Book Fair recently held at the Grayling Elementary School was a big success. He estimates that nearly 1800 books were sold during the three-day event.

The fair, sponsored by the local school district and the McGraw-Hill Agency of Mt. Pleasant, Michigan, offered hundreds of different titles for children and adults.

Helping to make the fair a success were the many parents and teachers who attended, as well as the students from all of the schools in the district. Room prizes for the room with the largest number of parents attending were given to Mrs. Boyce's fifth grade, and Sister Janet's first and second grade room at St. Mary's. The prizes were classroom libraries of ten books each.

Mrs. Fay Boyce, Mrs. Marie Akers, Miss Margaret Douglas, Mrs. Rose Duley, Mrs. Peggy Buife, and Jim Price assisted Mr. Dean in organizing, publicizing and carrying out the Book Fair. It is planned to make the Book Fair an annual event with the proceeds going toward the purchase of books for the elementary school libraries.

City Police Arrest 4, Issue 1 Summons

Grayling City Police issued a summons to William Henney Spiller, 19, of Royal Oak on Jan. 31 for careless driving involving an accident. He has or will appear before Justice Williamson.

On Feb. 4 Wayne Michael Hayes, 20, of Flint and Grayling, was arrested for violating Ordinance 4, D & D on public streets. He appeared in court Feb. 5 and made a plea of guilty, received $100 fine and $25 costs and 60 days, plus 30 more if fine and costs are not paid. At that time Hayes also cleared up some past charges against him.

David Jacob Helsel, 18, and Edwin Louis Helsel, 18, both of Lake City and Larry Sidney Apps, 19, of Higgins Lake were arrested Feb. 4 on the charge of being minors in possession of beer. They were released on bond the same day and appeared in court Feb. 5 and each pleaded guilty. Each was given $75 fine and $25 costs or 60 days. Fines and costs were paid by all three.

A youth from Boys' Training School in Lansing walked away and stole a car in that city, abandoning it Monday night in front of the A.L. Roberts home on Maple Street. He apparently stole a car belonging to Frank Schmidt of 807 Maple and continued north, abandoning this vehicle near St. Ignace. The car was in good running condition, and Frank was able to bring it back when notified. Authorities state that the youth has been apprehended.

The regular Monday evening dinner meeting was held at Chief Shoppenagons on Feb. 5. Promptly at 6:15 p.m. the meeting was called to order.

The 25 Grayling members were increased by six visiting Grayling Kiwanians to form an Inner Club.

Immediately following adjournment of the regular meeting the February director's meeting was brought to order. After discussion and clarification the 1968 budget was approved. The Board also approved the application of one new candidate for membership.

All Grayling Kiwanians are reminded that Monday, Feb. 12, will be induction night for several new members. Do your best to attend and welcome these friends to the club.

Snow Cancels Harbor Game Fri., Rescheduled Tuesday This Week

The Grayling - Harbor Springs basketball game scheduled for last Friday evening was postponed due to the sleet and snow storm that hit the northern area Thursday evening and all day Friday.

Due to the long trip that Harbor would have had to make it was decided at about 3:00 Friday afternoon to reschedule the game for Tuesday evening of this week.

Also cancelled was the Gaylord - Pellston game at Gaylord, for the same reason. This game will be made up at a later date.

Two games were played, however, in conference action as the Charlevoix Rayders overcame the East Jordan Red Devils to the tune of 100-48 as they continued undefeated. In the other game played, Mancelona journeyed to Boyne City and won a thriller 56-53.

This Friday evening the Viking cagers will travel to East Jordan for a game with the winless Red Devils. Smarting from their defeat from Charlevoix, the Red Devils could well be up for this

Fred Bear Museum Has Rare Items

By Chuck Kroll

Many years ago, Harold "Spike" MacNeven, then proprietor of Grayling's famous liquid refreshment emporium known as "Spike's Keg O'Nails," possessed two extremely unusual wall mounts. One, the Prairie Pike, was a scientific oddity and the other, the Beer Bottle Buck, was the result of an experience unique in the annals of hunting.

The Beer Bottle Buck was, believe it if you will, the result of a five card stud, low hole card wild, poker game. A group of rugged Michigan deer hunters were sitting in their camp enjoying the above sport when a buck wandered by. A beer bottle thrown through the window by one of the hunters caught the buck in the neck and dropped him on the spot. Spike, at no little expense, secured the trophy head and had it mounted, bottle and all.

Memo from Merrily

By Merrily Lacasse

Extension Home Economist
Would you accept choosing the color of your home from a list of neighborhood approved colors?

This new concept in home and community beautification — color coordinated communities — confronted a group of adult 4-H leaders recently. A leaders' conference at Camp Kett, January 19 and 20, directed by Joe Cox, specialist in landscape architecture with the Michigan State University Cooperative Extension Service, featured the views of Walter H. Olson, a paint company executive.

Olson believed the exterior of a home should be determined by community surroundings and the interior should reflect the owner's personality.

"In order to achieve harmony between individual color choices, a community will agree on a basic palette of harmonious colors, thus insuring harmonious neighborhoods," Olson said, outlining his concept of color planning for neighborhoods and communities. "The chosen palette should be both practical and aesthetic."

The exterior of a building should be part of the overall landscaping plan. Even the colors of flower borders and foliage can be chosen to correspond.

If a community color palette exists, exterior individuality will be limited to architectural features and materials. Color harmony will be attained and variety assured by texture.

"The interior of a building can be done in either objective or subjective color. Public buildings, in which the function and style of architecture determines the color, use an objective color scheme," he said.

"However, the colors of a home should be the subjective choice of the woman because she spends most of her time there and she will be most happy if her home is a manifestation of her personality," he continued.

In commenting on the possibility of color-coordinated communities becoming a reality in Michigan, Cox added, "Certain regions in Michigan have unique qualities. Home owners — and business owners — could benefit from an organized effort to preserve that uniqueness. It might even go so far as paint colors."

Grayling is a good example of a town preserving its uniqueness by building new structures in the Chalet style suited to the Alpine atmosphere of the area.

Educated Man

S. Census Bureau statistics indicate that a education is one of the best "investments" young man can make. For example, between 22 and 65, a person with an eighth-grade education can expect to earn a total of $445,000. Those with high school boosts lifetime earnings to $600,000, and those with four or more years of college may expect to earn $1,125 million by retirement. Earning capability has long been used as an indication for a college education — but statistics do not tell the whole story.

Far more than earning ability is required to succeed in business. Business leaders all over the country are warning that private citizens and business executives must participate to a greater extent in public affairs, and must exert more initiative in solving the social and economic problems of the time. The alternative is gradual submergence of our liberties in a sea of government bureaucracy and centralized authority.

A college degree looked upon solely as a source of higher earning ability often becomes no more than a license to exploit fellow citizens. The horizon of a truly educated man includes deep concern for the political and economic system under which he is privileged to live.

Moose Lodge News

By Mrs. Arthur Howse

Saturday evening the Belleville Degree team enrolled several new members into the lodge. Prior to the enrollment, members of the fellowship degree, which is the third degree of the Moose, prepared and served a Swiss steak dinner. It was termed a huge success as everything was sold out by 7:30. More dinners are being planned by the members of the Moose.

After the enrollment everyone enjoyed dancing and listening to Dick Johnson and his "North-erners." Added entertainment was singing by one of the newest members and a dancing act by a professional female dancer visiting the lodge.

Next Saturday evening there will be more live music and we understand a door-prize will be given away at a Valentine dance.

William Fitzgerald is out of the hospital and we understand he will be back to work this week. Word was received from Moose-haven, the home for our aged members in Florida, that a Grayling member, Leon Abair, is in the hospital there for surgery. We are sure he would enjoy hearing from any of his friends.

Our next regular lodge meeting will be Friday, Feb. 16, at 8:00 p.m. At this time a nominating committee must be appointed by the Governor for our annual election of officers soon to be held. Is there someone you would like in a particular office? Give him your support now before it's too late.

The March enrollment will be in honor of Alfred Hanson and will be done by our own degree team before entering state competition in April.

Soil Conservation Chief Honored With Award

By Daniel Kesselring

Donald A. Williams, Administrator of the Soil Conservation Service of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, who was named as winner of the 1967 Rockefeller Public Service Award in the field of administration, sees his job as serving equally the rural and urban population.

As the third head of the Soil Conservation Service since its establishment by Congress in 1935, Williams has guided the agency's program through its great change from the "dustbowl age" when erosion control was its primary responsibility, to current additional responsibilities for water conservation, flood control, and land use planning.

His administrative responsibilities include all soil conservation activities in Michigan as well as the other 49 states. Williams was in Michigan October 1 to dedicate the Mitsuquay Creek Watershed Project located in Saginaw, Genesee, and Shiawassee Counties.

Williams was born in Clark, South Dakota 62 years ago and received his B.S. in civil engineering from South Dakota State College. He later did postgraduate work at the same college and at the University of South Dakota. In 1956 he received an honorary degree of Doctor of Agriculture from South Dakota University, the first such degree ever awarded to a civil engineer.

Williams also serves as a consultant to the Ford Foundation and has been advisor to the governments of 17 countries, including India, Turkey, and New Zealand, on soil and water conservation problems, programs, and organization. He has been consultant to the Agency for International Development in Latin America and in Asia, and directs SCS projects in several countries for them.

Williams received the Distinguished Service Award of the National Association of Soil and Water Conservation Districts in 1957 and the Distinguished Service Award of the U.S. Department of Agriculture in 1958.

the library's allotment for materials based upon a list of priorities of items most needed and what criteria to use for making a good selection of materials. Previous to the meeting Miss Johnson had urged each person to bring along two or three selection aids to be used in the practice session. This practice session took place in the afternoon, which was spent by the individuals using the selection aids that they had brought to learn how to handle and process the new 1967-68 Title II order forms. Meeting adjourned at about 2:30 p.m.

Flying Ambulances

Many an injured soldier in Vietnam owes his life to a helicopter air lift. Such prompt medical attention may soon be available to those injured on Michigan highways. Superior Ambulance Service, Wyandotte, purchased a Bell Ranger 47-J helicopter and is providing airborne emergency transportation to hospitals within a 100-mile radius of its home base in Westland.

Service is on a trial basis, but Superior president Walter A. Gutkowski feels that the helicopter rescue unit will bring about a rapid increase in demand for service. In its initial test the "copter" made a pickup in Garden City and delivered the patient at University Hospital, Ann Arbor, 25 minutes after it was called.

Traffic-clogged expressways which hinder ambulance runs present little problem for the vertical travel of a helicopter. Rural roads, rendered impassable by snow or mud, offer no obstacles to the agile "whirlybird."

Rates for the services are comparable to land vehicles: $30 plus $1.50 per mile. Conventional ambulance rates in the area run $25 plus $1 per mile, but Gutkowski smilingly notes that the shorter "crowflight" route may make the higher mileage rate of the helicopter more a bargain than land ambulances.

According to Gutkowski, the helicopter can carry two injured persons and cruises at 90 miles per hour. Its top speed is 105. With its night-flying equipment the "copter" can fly in almost any weather, except for heavy snow.

University Hospital plans to blacktop, fence and light a landing pad 70 feet in diameter and only 100 yards from its emergency entrance. Plans also call for two-way radio communication between the hospital and the helicopter.

Several University Hospital physicians have studied helicopter use in combat zones and are confident that the new service will prove its value in emergency cases. The director of the hospital also cites helicopter service as a faster way to transport difficult cases referred from other institutions, notably those suffering from head injuries, severe burns and spinal injuries.

It seems likely that future hospital plans may call for helicopter landing pads as standard equipment.

Improvement Possible
Death can be reduced substantially on the highways any time the people of the state want to be hardboiled about it. When citizens of Michigan want to face up to the fact that drinking (not necessarily drunken) drivers are the cause of or involved in a very high percentage of serious accidents and are willing to do something about it, a change is in the air.

The trouble is that facing up to the facts can be painful. What is needed is new and stiffer laws which mean that drivers who drink really do go to jail, lose the right to drive, or are fined heavily. What is needed is for a high percentage of individuals in our population to support police who arrest drivers who have been drinking and judges who sentence them.

Unfortunately, that reaction from the public has been not very apparent.

Experience in London could motivate action. A new stiff law there met much resistance, but permitted police to give a "breathalyzer" test to anyone driving. If the test showed only a trace of alcohol, the driver received a stiff penalty. Apparently people paid attention to the law. Figures from this there were 50 percent fewer arrests for drunkenness than last year and 40 percent fewer accidents.

Michigan's new "consent law" went into effect Nov. 2. The full effect of the law is not yet felt, but the number arrested for drunken driving has doubled. The law requires that suspects take a test or forfeit their licenses.

Officials are concerned that the law has loopholes which will permit some to escape it. This remains to be seen.

A person refusing a test in Michigan is entitled to a hearing before a board. Attorney General Frank Kelley has ruled that this hearing needs the full treatment of court procedures. This, in turn, means that government expense could become tremendous. Costs of keeping records and paying expenses of witnesses would be substantial.

James M. Hare, Secretary of State, must deal with these hearings. His office is refusing to take the breathalyzer test. The results of this study will help lawmakers determine whether further changes in the law are necessary to protect the public from the drunken driver.

Attend The Church Of Your Choice

FOR THOSE WHO FOLLOW

Imagine picking your way along a frozen wilderness trail. You're bitterly cold, but see no sign of human habitation, mile after terrifying mile. Then, thanks to someone who's already gone this way, you come upon a crude shack. Even with shelter you could still freeze to death, but you find wood already gathered for a fire. Later, before venturing on, you too pile high more wood for someone yet to come. No matter who you are—or where—your life marks a trail that someone is following. Along that way is the Church—a haven from storms of the world. Yet the building alone is not enough. It must have people to work in it and to gather fuel for the fires of faith. Begin today to support and strengthen the Church for those yet to come.

No Change in River to Casual Eye

By Willard Bosserman, County Extension Natural Resource Agent

To the untrained eye of the casual observer there appears to be little change in the AuSable River. But to the Scientific River Watcher there are many warning signs that shout, "Do something now before it is too late."

The Michigan Water Resources Commission spent considerable time and effort in making scientific studies of the AuSable River and its tributaries in 1966.
They found indicators that show there is a deterioration of the stream and lowering of water quality.

A biological survey showed that up stream from Grayling at Pollack Bridge the bottom-dwelling fauna was made up of species typically found in quality water.

Below the treatment plant in Grayling deterioration was indicated by an unbalanced fauna and the number of species was reduced by 52 percent. At the 1-75 bridge the condition had partially corrected itself. Other conditions from 1-75 to Stephan's Bridge kept the stream from fully recovering. Part of the stream is wide, shallow and with sandy bottom. Artificial channels and lagoons have been dredged, which does not add to the high quality of the water.
The quality of the water stream
did not equal that at Pollack Bridge until they reached Step-han's Bridge.

On the South Branch conditions similar to the Pollack Bridge were found just down stream from 144 Bridge. The bottom-dwelling fauna was made up of species found in high quality water. At a point 3 feet in from the bank and 18 yards below the Roscommon treatment plant the bottom-dwelling fauna was drastically altered. Tolerant sludgeworms comprised 95 percent of the population. Normal bottom dwelling fauna was found 1.2 miles below the plant.
Another unseen test of water quality is dissolved oxygen or lack of it. The amount of dissolved oxygen should not go below 6 parts per million if the stream is to remain a trout stream.

Where organic material from a waste plant is put into the river the amount of dissolved oxygen is lowered until the material is oxidized. Then the oxygen supply returns to normal.
Another factor is that the nutrients from any source cause weed growth. During the day the plants produce oxygen, but during the night they use oxygen.
On a cloudy day they may use more than they produce through photosynthesis. This causes variations in the dissolved oxygen.

On the main stream tests taken in August of 1966 showed a D.O. variation of 2.8 parts per million at 1-75 bridge, a variation of 7.6 at Richardson road and back down to a 5 parts per million variation at the Stephan's bridge.

The variation at Richardson
Road was from 4.4 parts per million to 12.0 parts per million, at Stephan's bridge it was from 6.8.
The total amount dissolved oxygen increased as one traveled down stream.

The South Branch shows this a little more dramatically. The variation in parts per million of dissolved oxygen at the M-144 bridge above the Roscommon treatment plant is 1.8. Going downstream, at Steckert bridge, the variation is 5.2, at Chase bridge 5.6 and at the Smith Bridge back down to 2.4.

The purpose of this article is not to point a finger at any particular cause but to point out that there are indications that the AuSable River needs help. When the signs of deterioration can be seen visibly by every one, it may well be too late to take corrective measures.

The AuSable River Watershed Study Council is composed of a group of citizens who are interested in doing something now before it is too late to correct

STATE'S NON-PUBLIC SCHOOLS SAVE TAXPAYERS $200 MILLION ANNUALLY

Lansing — Michigan's nonpublic schools are saving the state's taxpayers more than $200 million this year, the Michigan Association of Non-Public Schools reports.

That's what it would cost in state and local taxes to educate the estimated 333,000 boys and girls who attend Michigan's nearly 1,000 non-public schools.
Dr. John Choitz of Detroit, Association President, said the savings was computed on the basis of the average per pupil state aid for the current school year and the average per pupil local tax support for public schools last year.

"In addition to financing their own schools, supporters of nonpublic schools, as taxpayers, also support public education," Dr. Choitz said.

Non-public schools in the Detroit Metropolitan Area, Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties—are saving taxpayers an estimated $117 million, the Non-Public School Association study showed.
Nearly 192,000 students attend 287 non-public schools, in the three counties.

In Crawford County, there are 128 students attending one nonpublic school and they are saving taxpayers an estimated $78-080 this year, the Association reported.

COMMUNICATIONS: A bulletin from the East Michigan Tourist Association announced co-sponsorship of the Ted Malone Program along with Farmer Pete's Packing Company and EMTA's participation in four travel shows this winter. This is advertising dollars being spent to promote vacationing in our section of the State.

Longworth informed the Board of an invitation sent to the Houghton Lake Chamber of Commerce some weeks ago offering to help them with their overflow of reservations during Tip-Up-Town.

Manager Longworth also wanted the Board to be aware of the excellent cooperation extended by the Crawford County Road Commission and Mr. Keir in response to the Chamber's request that the short road from M-93 to Bear Mountain be named Bear Mountain Road and signs be placed on the county roads going north from M-72 East and terminating at the main stream of the AuSable River. These signs are to be erected in the near future.

REPORTS OF MEMBERS: The treasurer's report was given by Treasurer John Latuszek. A list of new bills was offered to the Board's disposition. Motion by Clyde Borchers, seconded by Allan Barkley, that this report be accepted and the bills paid. All Ayes.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES: Mahlon Riker, Chairman of the Membership Committee reported on the Membership Meeting held January 5th. Dues are continuing to come in and approximately 77 percent have now been received.

Clyde Borchers, Chairman of the Tourist and Resort Committee, reported that 30,000 new Crawford County maps have been ordered from the Northern Michigan Press, and they will quote a price on 45,000 maps in the event the three participating organizations wish to order a two year supply at this time. Target date for completing of the printing is April 1st.

Al Siewert, the chairman of the ticket sales for the Queens Pageant to be held during Winter Carnival Weekend, reported that distribution of tickets has started. Siewert stated that his committee will do everything possible to make attendance at the 1968 Pageant a complete success as far as attendance is concerned.

Lon Qualls, chairman of the Sports Car Races on Lake Margrethe, reported that he is all set on the public address system, John Stamply will plow the race area on the lake, and Camp LaVictoire has offered to help in any way. Lon told the Board of plans for a group from Grayling to visit Lake City's time trials.

The snowmobile races scheduled to be held during the Winter Carnival Weekend were discussed, and as it was first announced, and as it was first announced, the manager was directed to call the Michigan Snowmobiler for more information. Motion by Clyde Borchers, seconded by Allan Barkley, that inasmuch as time is so short and with the information we now have, we do not feel the Chamber can support these races. 6 Ayes, 5 Nays—Motion carried.

Don Welsch, Chairman of the Business Development Committee, reported that two follow up letters were mailed to the company interested in expanding to northern Michigan. Another meeting of the Grayling Regional Development Corporation is scheduled for Thursday evening, January 25th.

NEW BUSINESS: Manager Longworth informed the Board of a call from a representative of the Junior Olympic Archery Club regarding an archery shoot to be held here the first weekend in March. He has checked with the Bowhunters Club, Bear Archery, and the school. Wheels are in motion for this event. Most will be boys between the ages of 7 and 18. Quite a few parents plan to accompany their youngsters.

Motion by Allan Barkley, seconded by Don Welsch, that this meeting be adjourned at 1:25 p.m.

Next meeting to be held February 4, 1968.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Mr. Madsen,

We are grateful to the Grayling Volunteer Fire Department for their prompt and efficient response when our house recently caught fire. They made the call in a very short time over icy roads, and every man knew his job when they arrived. Although the fire had gained considerable headway, they extinguished it completely, and with remarkably little water or other damage to the house by their activities.

There is no question that we would have lost our home had it not been for the dedication and ability of these men. The Grayling area is most fortunate to have a Volunteer Fire Department of such high caliber and equal to any urban paid unit. These men are to be highly commended for the time they spend in the study of modern fire fighting methods, the conscientious way they do their job, and the pride they take in the work.

Sincerely,

Leonard and Isabelle Allison

MICHIGAN CITIES TO SHARE ADDED GAS, WEIGHT TAX

LANSING — Michigan's more than 500 municipalities will receive an estimated $21.3 million in additional revenue from the Motor Vehicle Highway fund in 1969 as a result of the recently passed increases in the state gas and weight tax, the State Highway Commission reports.

The Highway Commission said the municipal share, totaling $44.7 million in 1967, will increase to an estimated $59.5 million in 1968 and an estimated $71 million in 1969.

Grayling received $21,913 in 1967, and will receive an estimated $24,495 in 1968. The estimates are based on predicted economic conditions and should be used with caution in preparing budgets and construction programs.

The county share, totaling $96.8 million in 1967, will increase to an estimated $105.4 million in 1968 and an estimated $120.8 million in 1969.

The state share, totaling $129.9 million in 1967, will increase to an estimated $142.3 million in 1968 and an estimated $163.4 million in 1969.

The governmental units will share nearly a full year of increased gas tax revenues this year. Weight tax increases take effect next November and the full amount is reflected in 1969 estimates.

"SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

If anyone has any doubts that there has to be at least a modicum of business sense in the operation of government, the fairly recent events in England should dispel such doubts.

Under the leadership of Harold Wilson, the Labor Party prime minister, the British pound was forced to devalue for the second time in a space of about 25 years, and further lighten controls on the British people.

And in a nation like the British Isles where 50 per cent or more of all foodstuffs must be imported, devaluation of the pound is a most serious matter.

It merely means that the money of the people will buy less food than formerly.

Of course, England can presumably undersell the rest of the world in exported items, but even this is questionable, especially as there are many uncertainties that will dampen commercial enthusiasm. Not the least of these uncertainties is the wonder if the pound will not be devalued even more.

In addition, if the present climate started under the Labor government right after World War II, namely nationalization, or socialization, is not reversed, the National Federation of Independent Business there seems some doubt that industry will be too inclined to plan expansions needed to bring Britain out of its fix.

Of course, the sales pitch used by socialism in England was that if the state owned the industries, the profits from their operations, could finance the vastly expanded welfare state. But England should have learned the lesson that in this competitive world, profits can vanish, especially if bureaucratic whims take over from competitive private management.

And not the least of England's problems is the silly posturing of the Wilson government in foreign affairs, principally the fiasco of Rhodesia. England needed the commerce with Rhodesia much more, as events turn out, than Rhodesia needed trade with England.

But perhaps the saddest part of all is that present American officials do not hesitate to record the support and substance of this nation to attempt to prop up a socialist regime.

Adding to England's woes is the outbreak of the hoof and mouth disease on their farms.

Perhaps England would not be in its present fix if doctrinaire socialists in both London and Washington had not first suffered a form of the disease peculiar to some politicians, commonly known as mounting nonsense.

Torino...for people who know there's more to a performance car than painted stripes.

1968 Torino GT Fastback (Top)
1968 Torino GT Hardtop (Bottom)

Anyone can paint stripes on a car. Ford's performance champs earn their stripes the hard way. Torino swept the first five places in the Riverside 500. It's the Pace Car for the Indy 500. It's the hottest-selling new car in the country! Fairlane took first place in its class for braking and for economy in the Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials—in fact, Ford Motor Company cars won more classes than all other manufacturers combined! If it's performance you want, ride with a winner! See the man with Better Ideas... your Ford Dealer.

FACTS ABOUT THE 1968 TORINO

When Torino takes the first five spots in the Riverside 500, first time out, you know it's tough! These cars, of course, were driven by professionals and were modified to meet the special demands of competition. But, the same kind of basic durability and maneuverability are built into every Torino we make. So if you want stripes, get 'em on the car that gives them meaning! Choose from three GT models—fastback, hardtop and convertible.

All with a 289-cu. in. V-8, wall-to-wall carpeting, all-vinyl interiors, styled steel wheels and wide-ovals. Or choose the regular hardtop or 4-door sedan. Like the GT's, they've got a new, longer, 116-in. wheelbase for smoother riding comfort, more room and more trunk space. You can even have a Torino Squire wagon, with 2-way Magic Doorgate.
